Memories of Christmas holidays

What a superior being Alfred. Slewed. what a hero! I will never forget his glee club pieces, how he sang and ^{played} ~~peached~~ out on the piano -- the old Gounlay in the old parlor where the low winter sun made shadows of the elm branches on the wall and carpet.
 "My father sent me to Victoria, resolved that I should be a man, and as I settled down in the quiet college town on the old Ontario strand. --- for Tas she not stood since the time of the flood on the old Ontario strand etc.

 and "Sheeter am a hummin' round de honey suckle vine, -- sleeps Kentucky babe, Lay yo' kumby, ~~woolly~~ woolly head on yo' wammy's breast.
 -- etc.

There was a minimum of friction and animosity in the board circle, there was much genuine laughter, good will, games, song songs, Had enjoyed it so. We all enjoyed it so. It will ever be a bright spot, among the brightest -- in my memory.

We started in this year, with about 10
 old white leghorns 8 other old hens about 22 brown pullets,
 and a road island
 reds, and a brown
 leg-horn ~~rooster~~
