On a fly drinking out of this Cup.

Busy, curious, thirsty fly!
Drink with me and drink as I:
Freely welcome to my cup,
Couldst thou sip and sip it up
Make the most of life you may,
Life is short and wears away.

Both alike are nine and three Hastening quick to their decline;
Thine's a summer, mine's no more
Though repasted to three score,
Three score summers, when they're gone
Will appear as short as one!

9 — Happy New Year! Kathleen

10 — and I saw it in rather 11 — quietly. My indistinct wife

12 — packed away all the interior

1 — Christmas decorations, and I

2 — got Santa back in his box.

3 — Got off to Hitchcock about 3.00

4 — and had a fine New Year's dinner

5 — of ham, squash, brussardi, scalloped potatoes beans etc. etc. and ice cream for dessert with Christmas cake. Left for home about 8.30 as the roads were icy.

Drove Kathleen up to John's last evening where the ladies aid meeting was. Was engrossed in that lovely pictorial volume of Hardy by O'Sullivan all evening.
640 was the highest I could get my office on the windy, bitter, snow blurred day.

- 9 - Woke up to a wintry landscape
- 10 - with three inches of snow. Had
- 11 - to sweep off walks and car before
- 12 - I journeyed to Paris. Must not
- 1 - forget to mention the glorious K.W.
- 2 - Symphony concert Saturday with
- 3 - Irving Glazer playing the
- 4 - Mendelssohn and the Sibelius
- 5 - 2nd Symphony - glorious, glorious
- music.

- 9 - Another wintry morning with
- 10 - a fresh light covering of snow
- 11 - which today's sunshine licked
- 12 - up. Came down in Olds as Kathleen
- 1 - had a hair appointment and
- 2 - went back with her and
- 3 - Lillian to John's birthday
- 4 - dinner at Jack's. Ella was
- 5 - there also. Drive Mary down
- this afternoon for last minute
- pre-holiday odds and ends, as
- getting U.S.A. money etc. etc.

- 11 — went off at 4.00 A.M. and we
- 12 — immediately arose, dressed and
- 1 — piled into the Delta Royale.
- 2 — Kathleen drove to the airport
- 3 — with Ev in the front, and Jack
- 4 — and I in the back. Took off
- 5 — at 8.00 A.M. on time late. Arrived
- in Bridgetown Barbados at twenty
- to two Atlantic standard time.
- The Jupiter weighed anchor about
- 6.30. A big crowd on board.

THURSDAY, MARCH 29

- 8 —
- 9 — Warm with sun and a few
- 10 — sun showers which kept us fresh
- 11 — and coolish. Docked at Grenada
- 12 — and had a morning tea
- 1 — on this rugged, hilly island,
- 2 — during which we stopped for
- 3 — half an hour at their famous
- 4 — beach. Weighed anchor at
- 5 — lunch time and headed
- west on our way to Venezuela
- Had a relaxing afternoon on the

FRIDAY, MARCH 30

9 — a good breakfast after a good

10 — night. Heading west by south 11 — towards Caracas. Docked at 12 — the port of La Guina at 2.00 P.M.

1 — The bus ride through ^{the} tunnels

2 — and sharp curves as we climbed

3 — up to the city of Caracas (three

4 — million inhabitants) was most

5 — spectacular, such rugged, mountainous terrain! A sight seeing tour around the city, and a brief stop in the centre for shopping. Came back to the port as the sun was setting. SATURDAY, MARCH 31

8 —

9 — That was a poor late movie

10 — last night, as the ship plunged 11 — through the rough sea. We 12 — staggered back to our room

1 — making good use of the hand

2 — rails. This morning the sea is 3 — calmer as we approach Caracas.

4 — a morning city tour of 5 — the town and back to the ship for lunch and a relaxing afternoon. Left just before Six under dark skies and rain.

TUESDAY, APRIL 3

9 — Awoke at Martinique. Oh

10 — what a glorious morning!

11 — Blue sky, blue sea, a few

12 — light clouds and a hot sun

1 — A marvelous morning taxi

2 — ride up to see Neb. P'dé and 3 — St. Pierre and the blackened

4 — ruins. The flowering shrubs

5 — were a riot of color in this bright sunshine. In the afternoon five of us went down to the shopping centre of Fort of France. A most successful day.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 4

9 — Dull skies and rain when 10 — we docked at Bridgetown —

11 — back again to our starting

12 — point. Enjoyed a morning's

1 — drive across the island to the 2 — Atlantic side. Stopped just before

3 — noon at ^{Saint Louis's} the white ~~palace~~ ^{castle} stone with 4 — the beautiful paintings and formal

5 — gardens and swimming pool.

Mathieu produced crackers and cheese. Airport departure around 2.00 P.M. on D.C. 10.

A smooth flight till we reached cloudy cold Ontario. Had to touch down at Montreal, ^{inadequate} on account of snow on run ways at Toronto.

9- Got our peas and potatoes 10- in yesterday afternoon, sweet 11- peas also. This morning being 12- dry and after a while sunny
 1- I dug the asparagus bed.
 2- Had a long rehearsal.
 3- a good dinner at "The Tops"
 4- and a fine concert. Otto 5- Armin was magnificent in the Tschaikowski.

- 9- Fine and warm. Took a 10- holiday from the office and 11- spent the morning cutting the 12- lawn and some odd jobs.
 1- Early lunch and departure in Olds 2- for Hitchener where we picked 3- up the twins and proceeded to 4- Stratford. Henry IV part 1. was a 5- very spectacular performance. Most entertaining. How I wish dear dad could have seen it. Had dinner on the patio at 153 Wilfred. with five friends, dog (Waisie) and new budgie.

SUNDAY, JUNE 3

9— Still hot but a nice breeze 10— came up in the afternoon.
11— Must get home in decent time 12— to get ready to trek of storage
1— Lake tomorrow. Cut the front 2— lawn after breakfast.

TUESDAY, JULY 17

8— 4:54 65° 80° 8:00

9— Partly cloudy but dry. Did a 10— good watering of the flower beds 11— before we got away in Olds by 12— 9:30. Picked up the twins just 1— off 401 on the Preston highway.
2— Ate our lunch in the car going 3— up 45 highway. Nancy had a 4— birthday dinner with Lake and 5— candles. She had a friend staying at the cottage which made a jolly party. The girls worried us by staying out away after 2:00 A.M.

November enters weeping and rather mild. I hope the little partial is satisfactory. Kathleen accidentally broke the little lateral off last evening and was very much upset about it. Between 59 and 60 little ones rang the front door bell last evening. I burned a lot more leaves in the back.

It was very slippery coming home yesterday afternoon with the five inches of new fallen snow.
Today was fair and cold and the driving much improved. Went down to Pen's after rehearsal and had a lovely dinner of turkey roast chickens, turnip, mashed potatoes and gravy, eating with apple strudel and ice cream. Jim and Evelyn were there to send the board.
Dennis has almost completed the downstairs rooms and they are lovely.

- Kathleen and I had our little Christmas after breakfast. then we went down to Paris for a tooth filling, and stopped in to see Ernie. At 4:30 we started for Cambridge and had a lovely visit and dinner at Jim and Evelyn's. Met Ray & Jay and little Bob. A damp Christmas with rain all day - snow all gone.

- The Bells followed us to Prumbo last night and we enjoyed their over night visit. They left about 10:30 for St Thomas. We were invited up to John's along with Er & Jack for another fine Christmas dinner. It finally stopped raining but was dull all day.

A clear day for a change. Venus was brilliant and set behind our chimney. Now the nine-day-old moon is flooding the heavens.

Still dark and damp; still the leaves greenish-brown fields, making a sad winter landscape.
 I still find hidden treasures in "Under the Greenwood Tree" These were like Shakespeare for ever.

NOTES

Epilogue to "The Dynasts"

MEMORANDA

We have now set forth in our imperfect way,
Ten years of history as a three hours' play, Leaving to your quick fancy all, or nearly,
That make a stern reality of such!

Yet how should art, even thus, call steadily back Court, camp and council, battle and bivouac,
The din and uproar of that crushing time
By the mere conjuring of measure and rhyme,
Were it not helped today in saddest wise
By sudden sharp events beneath our eyes!
Nation at war with nation, cruel wrong
Inflicted on the weaker by the strong!

May such reminders soon for ever pass and wan be but a shadow memory's glass, May Right uphold the injured people's cause, and Europe move again to genial laws;
May soon succumb all influences malign,
And still the star of England proudly shine!

Alfred Edward Housman

Loveliest of trees, the cherry now
Is hung with bloom along the bough,
And stands about the woodland ride
Wearing white for Eastertide

Now of my three score years and ten,
Seventy will not come again,
And take from seventy springs a score
It only leaves me fifty now.

And since to look at things in bloom
Fifty springs are little room,
About the woodland I will go
To see the cherry hung with snow

MEMORANDA

"Is my Team ploughing
What I used to drive
And hear the harness jingle
When I was man alive?"

Aye, the horses trample,
The harness jingles now;
No change though you lie under
The land you used to plough.

"Is football playing along the river shore,
With lads to chase the leather
Now I stand up no more?"

Aye, the ball is flying,
The lads play heart and soul;
The goal stands up, the keeper Stands up to keep the goal.

"Is my girl happier
That I thought hard to leave
And has she tired of weeping
As she lies down asleep?"

Aye, she lies down lightly,
She lies not down to weep;
Your girl is well contented
Be still, my lad, and sleep.

MEMORANDA

" Do my friend Beauty,
Now I am thin and pine;
and has he found to sleep in A better bed than mine? "

Age, lad, I lie easy,
I lie as lads would choose;
I been a dead man's sweet heart,
Never ask me where.
